Numb. 9623.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 2, to Tuesday October 5, 1756.

Lisbon, Auguſt 24.

THE Fleet from Fernambuco, conſiſting of 15 Ships, arrived in the Texel laſt Friday. A few Days ago two of our Men of War put to Sea on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Corſairs.

Vienna, Sept. 15. This Morning ſeven Companies of the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Archduke Peter Leopold, marched from hence for Bohemia, and are to be replaced by the ſame Number of Companies from the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Portugal.

Liege, Sept. 21. We are informed by Letters from Givet, that the French are not only buying up great Quantities of Proviſions and Forage, but that they are alſo collecting together a great Number of Boats for tranſporting a large Train of Artillery.

Cologn, Sept. 22. Laſt Monday General Count Lucheſi paſſed through this City for Bohemia, in order to join the Imperial Army. 'Tis ſaid that a large Body of French Troops will ſoon arrive in this Country, and that they [illegible] the Rhine on a Bridge of Boats to be prepared for that Purpoſe in the Neighbourhood of Neuwied.

Hague, Sept. 23. The Deputies of the ſeveral Colleges of the Admiralty of theſe Provinces are deliberating on the Affairs of their Department. We learn by Letters of the 18th Inſtant from Berlin, that Count Puebla, their Imperial Majeſties Miniſter to that Court, was ſet out from thence on his Return to Vienna.

Hamburgh, Sept. 24. Yeſterday the Burghers of this City were aſſembled, and after great Debates, it was at laſt agreed on to raiſe a Contribution under the Denomination of Head Money, in order to be employed towards finiſhing the rebuilding of the Pariſh Church of St. Michael, which was deſtroyed by a Flaſh of Lightning in March 1750. This Morning Baron d'Hæſeler, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Envoy at the Court of Denmark, who has been ſome Months abſent from his Poſt on Account of his private Affairs, arrived here from Berlin, on his Return to Copenhagen.

Dreſden, Sept. 26. Every Thing is here in the ſame Situation as it was almoſt three Weeks ago, except, that ſince Wedneſday laſt, the 22d Inſtant, the Pruſſian Soldiers have received Orders to live for the Future upon their Pay, and not to be any longer entertained by the Burgeſſes. The Country People alſo are ordered not to deliver any more Forage; but what is wanted for the Erecting of a moſt compleat Magazine, is paid for with ready Money; for which Purpoſe, one of thoſe who had farmed the Exciſe here, whoſe Name is Schimmelman, has received a conſiderable Sum of Money out of the Pruſſian Caſh. His Pruſſian Majeſty continues before Pirna with an Army ſufficient to block up the Saxons in their Camp; to which Place, now and then, one of his Poliſh Majeſty's Waggons, loaded with Wine, Flower, Game, Spices, &c. is permitted to go from hence. On Saturday laſt, the 18th Inſtant, fifteen hundred Hungarian Sheep, which were to enter the Saxon Camp through the Wood, were all taken by the Pruſſian Huſſars. The greateſt Part of the Pruſſian Army is actually in Bohemia under Field Marſhal Keith's Orders. They took Tetſchen, a City with a Palace ſituated upon a Rock, which belongs to Count Thun, and is conſidered as a Frontier Fortreſs againſt Saxony; and made the Garriſon, conſiſting of one Captain, one Lieutenant, four under Officers, and twelve Soldiers, Priſoners of War. Theſe Priſoners arrived here Yeſterday, and are to be conducted by Water to Magdeburgh. 'Tis aſſured that the Pruſſian and Auſtrian Armies in Bohemia are ſo near each other, that we may ſoon expect to hear of a Battle between them.

Bruſſels, Oct. 1. Four Independent Companies, of 100 Men each, are ordered to be forthwith raiſed in the Auſtrian Netherlands. The Orders for aſſembling the Troops, that are to take the Field, are not yet given out. Thoſe that are intended by the Court of France for the Aſſiſtance of the Empreſs-Queen, are actually aſſembling at Metz.

Admiralty-Office, October 4, 1756.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament paſſed in the 26th Year of His Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been ſent to this Office, That the Ship Ann, of Briſtol, William Perry, Maſter, Burthen about 150 Tons, laden with 304 Hogſheads of Tobacco, 29 Tons of Pig Iron, and 7000 Staves, and bound from the River York in Virginia to Briſtol, was drove on Shore about Eleven at Night, on the 25th paſt, on the Weſt Side of Dale within the Port of Milford, where ſhe entirely beat to Pieces; the Tobacco Hogſheads were ſtaved, and the Tobacco entirely loſt; that the Pig Iron remained in deep Water, and was not come at, and that ſome Pieces of the Cables, ſome of the Sails and Rigging, and ſome of the Staves, which were on board, are the only Things which were then ſaved.

J. Milnes, Deputy Secretary.

General Post-Office, October 2, 1756.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail, dispatched from this Office upon Tuesday the 28th of September, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, was, on Thursday last, the 30th of the same Month, about half an Hour past Six of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, in a Lane between Coal Aston and Little Norton, in the County of Derby, by Two Men on Foot, who took from him and carried away the Mail, containing the Bag of Letters from London to Sheffield, and likewise the Bag containing the Bye and Cross-Road Letters, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, as also four Shillings and Six-pence from the said Post-Boy.

The two Persons who committed this Robbery are described as middle sized Men, and wearing, the one of them a blue Coat and white Waistcoat, and the other a light-coloured Frock; one of them was pitted with the Small-Pox, and the other had a Mark upon one Hand, as if the same had been cut.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the two Persons who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby both, or either of the Persons who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Navy Office, October 1, 1756.

The principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that there is in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money to pay off all Bills register'd on the Course of the Navy in the Month of April 1756, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally impower'd to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment accordingly.

Victualling Office, October 1, 1756.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, to pay Interest and Non Interest Bills, register'd in the Course of the Victualling in the Month of April 1756, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally impower'd to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assign'd for Payment.

Victualling Office, June 8, 1756.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Friday the 18th of February 1757, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to receive Proposals from such Persons as may be inclinable to contract for the Supplying His Majesty's Ships at Jamaica with fresh Beef, for the Term of four Years certain, from the 4th of June 1757, and further till Twelve Months Warning shall be given on either Side.

The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London, or by applying to Mr. Patterson, His Majesty's Muster-Master and Store-keeper at Jamaica, or his Majesty's Master-Master and Store-keeper there for the Time being.

Office of Ordnance, Tower of London, Oct. 1, 1756.

The Lieutenant General, and the rest of the Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance, do hereby give Notice to all Persons whatsoever, who are willing to contract for supplying the said Office with such Quantities of Tanfield Moor Coals, as may be wanted for His Majesty's Service at the Tower, Woolwich and Greenwich, for the Barracks, Guard Houses, Infirmaries, Offices, Smiths Shops, &c. that they may leave their Proposals in Writing, sealed up, at this Office, on Friday the 8th Instant; when those who tender the lowest Price will be agreed with. By Order of the Board,
Wm. Bogdani.

Custom-House, London, Oct. 4, 1756.

The Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs gives Notice, that he shall be ready, on the 12th of October instant, and the Four following usual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that were presented to the Commissioners between the 17th of April 1756, exclusive, and the 27th of the same Month inclusive, and which became due between the 17th of July 1756, exclusive, and the 27th of the same Month inclusive, without Interest.

The said Receiver General gives this further Notice, that in Case any of the said Debentures shall remain unpaid for want of being tendered for Paymnt on one of the five Days above-mentioned, that no Interest will be paid thereon.

MOTIVES, which have obliged His Majesty the King of Prussia, to prevent the Designs of the Court of Vienna.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Knight, in Jamaica, to his Father in Birchin Lane, London.

'I Have had that Fever which the People are very subject to when they first come to this Place, but having great Faith in Dr. James's Powder, I was determined to take them, and it removed my Fever in less than 48 Hours, to the great Surprize of all those who were about me. I have persuaded many to try them in that Disorder since, and with great Success; for they have done most surprizing Cures, and raised People even after they have been given over by the Physicians.'

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.
